"Stand Up and Cheer" Shown At Lomita Theatre Friday, Saturday

James Dunn and Shirley Temple, the 4-year-old sensation of the screen, are only two of the principals among 25 in "Stand Up and Cheer" shown at the Lomita Theatre, Friday and Saturday, September 21 and 22.

Popular Baby Star In Newest Success At Torrance Tonight

In a scene from Paramount's "Now and Forever," coming to the Torrance Theatre tonight, Friday and Saturday, September 20, 21 and 22, Gary Cooper is asking a goodnight kiss from dimpled Shirley Temple, who is starred with him and Carole Lombard in the picture. We wonder if Shirley really capitalized on this opportunity?

Also showing on these dates, "Million Dollar Ransom," with Edward Arnold and Mary Carlisle in the leading roles.

"Side Streets," Tale of Fight For Love, Coming Tues., Wed.

"Side Streets," the story of a woman's great love, which is in conflict with lesser loves and "lights-o'-love," comes to the Torrance Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday, September 25 and 26, with Aline MacMahon in the stellar role, and Paul Kelly taking the masculine lead.

Attendance At Fair May Pass Half Million

POMONA.—Establishing a new record for attendance, number and variety of exhibits and beauty of displays, the 13th annual Los Angeles county fair combined with Riverside and Orange county fairs, got under way last Saturday. Already it is assured that the attendance will surpass the half million goal placed by the officials earlier in the year by the time the gates close on September 30.

The thousands who have poured through the gates thus far have marveled at the size and completeness of the exposition. They have gazed in admiration at the gorgeous decorations, the magnificent landscape effects and the cleanliness of it all. Every one of the score or more of major departments of the fair is larger than it has ever been before. This is notably true of the livestock department, the domestic arts department, the junior fair, machinery division, school exhibits, and agricultural section.

The poultry show which closes Saturday night, to be replaced by the rabbit and pigeon show, is the largest west of the Rockies this year. The night horse show will be replaced on Saturday night by a series of sensational night programs in front of the grandstand. These will be headed by the thrilling Roman chariot races, automobile races, motorcycle races, gorgeous fireworks and many other features.

Interest is also added to the final half of the exposition by the milking, churning and farmette contests which will be held the latter part of the fair. A large number of entries have already been made, according to the superintendent of the dairy department under whose supervision the event is held.

Taken all in all, the fair this year is a magnificent event and, according to those who have already attended, surpasses even the fondest expectations of those who, from past experience, expect something very unusual at Los Angeles county fair.

Joe E. Brown Gets Seasick Smoking In Circus Film Scene

Joe E. Brown was a sick man one day during the filming of his latest First National comedy, "The Circus Clown," which comes to the Plaza Theatre in Hawthorne on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, September 23, 24 and 25.

It was the plain old boyhood seasickness from tobacco smoking.

Joe never smokes ordinarily. But in one picture sequence in which he plays the part of his own father, he was not only required to smoke a pipe, but to show great pleasure in doing it.

By the time the scene had been taken seven times, for various angles and close-ups, Joe was pale and shaky, and the minute the scenes were completed he crawled out from under the tent of the Al G. Barnes circus, where the picture was being photographed, and heaved up a great sigh among other things.

"Just like the first time I swiped the old man's corn cob," said Joe.

"Down to Their Last Yacht" Lavish Satire On Vanished Wealth

Refuting the general belief that the state of Utopia will not be reached until everybody is financially independent, "Down to Their Last Yacht," the musical fantasy now at the Plaza Theatre in Hawthorne, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, September 23, 24 and 25, shows that this blissful state is attained when one becomes content with the many and lavish gifts of Nature.

The story recounts the hilarious adventures of members on a yachting cruise to the South Seas. The crew and servants are down-and-out bluebloods, reduced to work for a living, and the passengers are of the newly-rich class, aspiring to climb the social ladder.

Beautiful melodies by a half dozen popular composers are interpolated throughout this fantastic musical comedy. Spectacular exotic ensemble dances are featured as well.

Mary Boland, as the queen of this island furnishes much of the comedy, as does Polly Moran in the role of a hard-boiled promoter of social climbers. Frozen-faced Ned Sparks is the captain of her yacht.

PLUMBER IS FINED

Valentine Brown, arrested on a charge of violating the plumbing ordinance of the city of Torrance, whose trial was postponed from August 29 to last week, was found guilty and was fined $100 or 50 days in the county jail. Of this, all but $10 was suspended on condition that Brown take out a contractor's license with the city within 30 days. The balance of the fine was paid.

Blue Notes Don't Make Her Blue

We know that Mary Boland, as the queen of the tropical island in RKO-Radio's mad musical, "Down to Their Last Yacht," seen at the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday, September 23 and 24, is more than a trifle bawdy, because she sotes on the saxophone "music" of Sterling Holloway.

That Mary Boland is one of the funniest women on the screen is again demonstrated in "Down to Their Last Yacht."

Miss Boland, according to the opinion of critics, puts across an astonishing triumph in this bizarre musical extravaganza film. As the queen of a tropical isle she makes great humor out of trying to remember whether she "poisoned her last husband or fed him to the sharks!"

The term "mad musical" is well applied to this film, the newest output of that daring new producer, Lou Brock. Its two stories in one are replete with amazing novelties. It boasts an island that dances—water, ground, trees, bonfires, natives and all. It has natives so practiced as swimmers that they spoon under water with no inconvenience. It introduces 24 men selected by 5000 women as their idea of a "Perfectly Desirable Man." It presents a new dance which rivals in vivacity the justly famous "Caricoa."
